AIL Insurance Calls to Members

Sisters and Brothers,

The office has received numerous calls of late from Members regarding phone calls they are receiving from representatives from an insurance company. AIL is an insurance company contracted by IBEW First District to offer free supplemental insurance to IBEW Members. A few months back, all IBEW First District Members receives a package in the mail offering free additional insurance benefits, requiring the member to fill out and mail back a card. AIL is now in the process of verifying information by phone, attempting to get signatures on policies, and also possibly up-selling cheap additional insurance. The representatives from AIL are legitimate, but of course, if you are not comfortable with what is being asked, make arrangements you are comfortable with, and/or decline their offers.
