Year One

This is the Business Office's first year Anniversary. Well It has been quite a year.

William was dully elected as Business Manager of IBEW Local 2067, 365 days ago. In that time the Business Office has had its share of triumphs and tribulations; All the while working to protect our Members rights.

Highlights of this year have been:

- Successfully negotiating a Memorandum of Agreement that passed by almost 80% after years of struggle.
- Successfully negotiating a ADT Contract, passing with 100% approval
- Wrapping up TYCO negotiations this week.
- Bringing the Business Office and the Executive in line with the International Constitution, guidelines and policy by establishing designated roles and responsibilities through Local Union Leadership Training.
- Dealing with and mitigating issues, processes, procedures to help keep Members safe, healthy, and gainfully employed during the Covid 19 Pandemic.

It has been this Business Offices pleasure to serve our Membership. We have enjoyed meeting Members hearing with and dealing with problems, concerns, grievances and always endeavoring for a positive resolve. The Business Office has also been fortunate to meet with so many Brothers and Sisters who assist, guide, and help to make our Brotherhood strong.

Our Membership is made up of Employees from different Companies, different geographic areas, and have different struggles. But like our home Province Saskatchewan's Motto; "Multis E Gentibus Vires" ... Latin for ... From Many Peoples Strength. That's us, That's IBEW 2067; we are stronger in all our diversity when we work together.
